SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

3 years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: DAVID WILLIAMS
CASE NUMBER: 1:S1 20 CR 00049-001 (JFK)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: DAVID WILLIAMS
CASE NUMBER: S1 20 CR 00049-001 (JFK)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication, data storage devices, cloud storage or media, and effects to a search by any U.S. Probation Officer, and if needed, with the assistance of law enforcement. The search is to be conducted when there is reasonable suspicion concerning violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by Mr. Williams. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in reasonable manner.
- 2) The defendant must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
- 3) The defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer unless Mr. Williams is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.
- 4) The defendant shall participate in an educational, vocational, and/or employment program as directed by the probation officer.
- 5) The defendant must not have contact with the victim(s) in this case. This includes any physical, visual, written, or telephonic contact with such persons. Additionally, the defendant must not directly cause or encourage anyone else to have such contact with the victim(s).
- 6) The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in an outpatient sex offender treatment and/or outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to polygraph testing and refraining from accessing websites, chatrooms, instant messaging, or social networking sites to the extent that the sex offender treatment and/or mental health treatment program determines that such access would be detrimental to Mr. Williams' ongoing treatment. The defendant will not view, access, possess, and/or download any pornography involving adults unless approved by the sex-offender specific treatment provider. The defendant must waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the U.S. Probation Office to review the course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant must contribute to the cost of services rendered based on ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the sex offender treatment provider and/or mental health treatment provider.
- 7) The defendant shall permit the U.S. Probation Office to install any application or software that allows it to survey and/or monitor all activity on any computer(s), automated service(s), or connected devices that Mr. Williams will use during the term of supervision and that can access the Internet (collectively, the "Devices"), and the U.S. Probation Office is authorized to install such applications or software. Tampering with or circumventing the U.S. Probation Office's monitoring capabilities is prohibited. To ensure compliance with the computer condition, Mr. Williams must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced examinations of any Device(s) that are subject to monitoring. The defendant must notify any other people who use the Device(s) that it is subject to notification of planned use of any Device(s), and will not use any Device(s) without approval until compatibility (i.e., software, operating system, email, web-browser) is determined and installation is completed. Applications for the defendant's Device(s) shall be approved by the U.S. Probation Office once the Probation Office ensures compatibility with the surveillance/monitoring application or software. Websites, chatrooms, messaging, and social networking sites shall be accessed via Device(s) web browser unless otherwise authorized. Mr. Williams will not create or access any Internet service provider account or other online service using someone else's account, name, designation or alias. The defendant will not utilize any peer-to-peer and/or file sharing applications without the prior approval of the probation officer. The use of any Device(s) in the course of employment will be subject to monitoring or restriction as permitted by the employer.
- 8) The defendant is to be supervised by the district of residence.

ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall make restitution payments by certified check, bank check, money order, wire transfer, credit card or cash. Checks and money orders shall be made payable to the "SDNY Clerk of the Court" and mailed or hand-delivered to: United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY 10007 - Attention: Cashier, as required by 18 U.S.C. 3611. Mr. Williams shall write his name and the docket number of his case on each check or money order. Credit card payments must be made in person at the Clerk's Office. Any cash payments shall be hand delivered to the Clerk's Office using exact change and shall not be mailed. For payments by wire, the defendant shall contact the Clerk's Office for wiring instructions.

The defendant shall commence monthly installments of $50 per month no later than 30 days after release from custody.

While serving the term of imprisonment, the defendant shall make installment payments toward his restitution obligation and may do so through the Bureau of Prisons' (BOP) Inmate Financial Responsibility Plan (IFRP). Pursuant to BOP policy, the BOP may establish a payment plan by evaluating the defendant's six-month deposit history and subtracting an amount determined by the BOP to be used to maintain contact with family and friends. The remaining balance may be used to determine a repayment schedule. BOP staff shall help Mr. Williams develop a financial plan and shall monitor the inmate's progress in meeting his restitution obligation.

The defendant shall notify, within 30 days, the Clerk of the Court, the U.S. Probation Office (during any period of probation or supervised release) and the U.S. Attorney's Office, 86 Chambers Street, 3rd Floor, New York, NY 10007 (Attn: Financial Litigation Unit) of 1) any change of name, residence, or mailing address or 2) any material change in the defendant's financial resources that affects his ability to pay restitution. If Mr. Williams discloses, or the Government otherwise learns of, additional assets not known to the Government at the time of the execution of this order, the Government may seek a Court order modifying the payment schedule consistent with the discovery of new or additional assets.

The defendant shall pay interest on any restitution amount of more than $2,500, unless restitution is paid in full before the 15th day after the date of the judgment.

The liability to pay restitution shall terminate on the date that is later of 20 years from the entry of judgment or 20 years after the Defendant's release from imprisonment. Subject to the time limitations in the preceding sentence, in the event of Mr. Williams' death, his estate will be responsible for any unpaid balance of the restitution amount, and any lien filed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3613(c) shall continue until the estate receives a written release of that liability.
